

Kainan University Application of Giving up Minor Qualification

1. For those who have already met the qualifications for graduation in their department but have not completed the required subjects and credits for a minor program, they may apply to give up the minor qualification. (However, those who have chosen but have not completed one full year may not withdraw or change the minor program.)
2. Application Deadline: Within one week after the start of each semester.
3. After submitting this application to the Office of the Registrar and completing the procedures, no requests for the reinstatement of the minor qualification will be accepted for any reason, and no requests for related documentation of coursework will be provided by the university after graduation.
